PARTICIPANTS: Sally Greenberg, National Consumers League

CPSC PARTICIPANTS: Commissioner Robert Adler; Jason K. Levine, Chief Counsel to Commissioner Adler

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS: The National Consumers League representative called to discuss the Commission's lack of progress with respect to a mandatory performance standard on table saws. The call was a response to a USA Today article, "CPSC wants to stop daily table saw amputations" published on February 1, 2011. The Commissioner thanked the representative for her call and her continued attention to the issue and urged her to keep him apprised of further developments.
